Letter No D Dis C S 94/34-35 dated 10-4-1935 from the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District stating that the area proposed to be acquired for widening Gavipalaya Main Road has been included in S No 9, the entire area of which has been given away to Fr Brand for the Polytechnic school and that Fr Brand has no objection to the proposed acquisition

It will be seen from the file relating to the grant of land to Fr Brand that the lands in S No 9 Bhogenahalli Village belong to Govt and have been given to Fr Brand free of cost subject to certain conditions & Fr Brand has no objection to the proposal as it is perhaps enough if the land required is alienated and there is no necessity to acquire the lands The Law Section may perhaps be consulted

If the acqn proceedings have to be pursued entirely as per 5 of the Declaration Staff will have to be changed as the Bunny Rule is not the owner of the property now

If the land is to be taken without acqn proceedings a regular deed of transfer has to be got executed by the Mission authorities & then registered ~~thereafter~~ thereafter the property is to be vested in the Municipality for widening the road I feel acqn under the L A Regn is in this case a simpler procedure to follow

The owner of the land to be acquired is not the Bunny Rule & Col 5 has to be suitably modified
